Remembering in Your Prayers

We are asked to remember in our prayers all our shut-ins, our unemployed, our sick, our grieving, and our own parish dead, especially: Margaret Costello and William Kelly.

Prayer Line

If you have something or someone you would like us to pray for, call the Prayer Line at 508-668-2448 and a group of prayerful parishioners will add your intentions to their daily prayer. Prayer works!

SUMMER HOURS FOR PARISH HOUSE

From Monday, June 14th until Saturday, September 11th, the Parish House will be closed for business during the summer on Mondays and Fridays. The Parish House will be open Tuesday—Thursday only, from 9:30 AM—5 PM. Please plan to conduct your parish business during those hours so that our office volunteers can enjoy the summer. In an emergency, call the Parish House at 508-668-4700.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (CCD) REGISTRATION FORMS GO IN THE MAIL

Families should be receiving registration information for Religious Education Grades 1 through 8 this week. If you don't, please call Bill Dittrich, 508-668-4700 so we can send you the form and schedules. All the information is also on the parish website, www.blessedsacrament.org. The deadline for registering is Monday, August 30, 2010. Please spread the word especially to people who may be away or haven't sent their children to religious education in the last few years. The deadline allows us to plan the number of classes for each day and know how many teachers are needed at what times. That's why the fee goes up after the deadline. Also you are less likely to get the class day and time you want after the deadline. This year, because Mondays are so popular there will be an overflow time slot if we have more requests for Monday classes than the schedule permits. Still if possible, choose another day: Sunday, Tuesday, or Thursday.

A Message from the Co-Pastors

You will never look at a cup of coffee the same way. A young woman went to her mother and told her about her life and how things were so hard for her. She did not know how she was going to make it and wanted to give up. She was tired of fighting and struggling. It seemed as one problem was solved a new one arose. Her mother took her to the kitchen. She filled three pots with water. In the first, she placed carrots, in the second she placed eggs and the last she placed ground coffee beans. She let them sit and boil without saying a word. In about twenty minutes she turned off the burners. She fished the carrots out and placed them in a bowl. She pulled the eggs out and placed them in a bowl. Then she ladled the coffee out and placed it in a bowl. Turning to her daughter, she asked, "Tell me what you see?" "Carrots, eggs and coffee," she replied. She brought her closer and asked her to feel the carrots. She did and noted that they got soft. She asked her to take an egg and break it. After pulling off the shell, she observed the hard-boiled egg. Finally, she asked her to sip the coffee. The daughter smiled, as she tasted its rich aroma. The daughter then asked, "What's the point, mother?" Her mother explained that each of these objects faced the same adversity—boiling water—but each reacted differently. The carrot went in strong, hard and unrelenting. However after being subjected to the boiling water, it softened and became weak. The egg had been fragile. Its thin outer shell had protected its liquid interior. But, after sitting through the boiling water, its inside became hardened. The ground coffee beans were unique, however. After they were in the boiling water they had changed the water. "Which are you?" she asked her daughter. "When adversity knocks on your door, how do you respond? Are you a carrot, an egg, or a coffee bean?" Think of this: Which am I? Am I a carrot that seems strong, but with pain and adversity, do I wilt and become soft and lose my strength? Am I an egg that starts with a malleable heart, but changes with the heat? Did I have a fluid, but after a death, a breakup, a financial hardship or some other trial, have I become hardened and stiff? Does my shell look the same, but on the inside am I bitter and tough with a stiff spirit and a hardened heart? Or am I like the coffee bean? The bean actually changes the hot water, the very circumstance that brings pain. When the water gets hot, it releases the fragrance and flavor. If you are like the bean, when things are at their worst, you get better and change the situation around you. When the hours are the darkest and the trials are their greatest do you elevate to another level? How do you handle Adversity? Are you a carrot, an Egg, or a coffee bean? Don't tell God how big your storm is. Tell the storm how big your God is! Author Unknown

OUTDOOR MASS SCHEDULED

Our Annual Outdoor Mass and cook out is scheduled to take place on Sunday, September 12, 2010 and planning is now underway. We are looking for a number of volunteers to assist in the planning efforts and sign up sheets are available at the main entrance of the Church. Specifically, we need people to work on publicity, set-up, transportation, outreach to parishioners, and cook out logistics. In order to make this annual event the success it has been, we once again need your support. Please take a minute and sign up after Mass to help out or send an email to ppc@blessedsacrament.org and let us know how you'd like to get involved.

DAY AWAY OF PRAYER AT THE ST. JOSEPH RETREAT HOUSE IN MILTON

Come away for a day of prayer, reflection, and dialogue as we gather at the St. Joseph Retreat House in Milton on October 2, 2010 from 9:30 – 5:00. The day will give people the opportunity to spend some quiet time, listen to different presentations, as well as share insights. If you are interested in attending please email, call, or give Fr. Tim a note with your name, phone number, email address and a check for $35.00 payable to Blessed Sacrament. Participation is limited.

WHO? ME? TEACH CCD?

Yes, you could. It's a chance to make a difference for children using crafts and activities kids enjoy. The best part is passing on the Catholic faith that is important to you to the next generation. Children need to hear the different voices of faith, the different experiences, so they can discover how it speaks to them. Consider being part of it this year. Come to an information meeting either Wednesday, Sept. 1 or Tuesday, Sept. 7 from 7:30 to 8:30 in the Community Room. If you can't make the meeting, call Bill Dittrich, 508-668-4700, email bdittrich@blessedsacrament.org or use the volunteer form at www.blessedsacrament.org.

THINKING ABOUT NEXT WEEK'S GOSPEL

In the Gospel readings for Sunday, August 15, (Luke 1:39-56), Mary visits Elizabeth and is greeted with a joyful affirmation of her acceptance of God's action. Mary then proclaims the glory of God and God's works.

Next week's question is:

"What part of Mary's Magnificat mean the most to you?"

BLESSED SACRAMENT SCHOOL

Blessed Sacrament School has openings for the 2010-2011 school year in Pre-K, K, and Grades 1, 5, 7 and 8. Please consider the value of a holistic, Catholic education for your children.
